Excerpt of the Federal Act on Foreign Nationals (Art. 118 Fraudulent conduct towards the authorities) :

1 Any person who deceives the authorities responsible for the implementation of this Act by providing false information or withholding essential information and thereby fraudulently secures the grant of a permit for themselves or another or prevents the withdrawal of a permit is liable on conviction to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or to a monetary penalty.

2 Any person who, with the intention of circumventing the regulations on the admission and stay of foreign nationals, marries a foreign national or arranges, encourages or facilitates such a marriage is liable on conviction to a custodial sentence not exceeding three years or to a monetary penalty.

3 The penalty is a custodial sentence not exceeding five years or a monetary penalty and the custodial sentence must be combined with a monetary penalty if the offender:

- a. acts intentionally for their own or another's unlawful financial gain; or
- b. acts for an association or group that was formed for the purpose of the continued perpetration of this offence.
