

Request for authorisation to work part-time for a staff member

To be returned to the Swiss Mission

Reminder of the rules and conditions under the Guidelines Foreign staff members are generally required to work full time for their organisation. Upon request by the organisation, a person may be authorised by the Swiss Mission to work part time. They must, however, undertake in writing not to engage in any other gainful activity in Switzerland and certify that they have adequate financial resources to meet their own needs and those of their family members. As a general rule, an employment rate below 50% is not allowed. The reduction of an employment rate below 50% is not allowed. The reduction of an employment rate down to 60% for a temporary period (less than or equal to 12 months) of a person who is already in function does not require the approval of the Swiss Mission. If members are in the event the comment of 50% for a temporary period (less than or equal to 12 months) of a person who is already in function does not require the working contract, family members may, in principle, keep their FDFA legitimation card. If the employment rate is memoryment, family members may not, in principle, receive a FDFA legitimation card. In the case of a new part time employment, family members may not, in principle, receive a FDFA legitimation card. Where appropriate, the organisation must submit a detailed request by letter and the Swiss Mission will reserve its position according to the outlined circumstances. NAME OF THE ORGANISATION
